MISSIONARY UPDATE

02/01/20

WorldVenture-Africa

I'll be headed to Juba in South Sudan in February. The young nation is still very unstable. Dominic Olluru and the Evangelical Church of South Sudan have organized a leadership training workshop for the leaders of several denominations. They have requested training on concerns like cultivating peace in families and in the community and the Church's role in economic development. I'm going to inundate them with the teachings of Jesus—

- love your enemies,
- tell the truth,
- forgive others,
- great leaders are servants; leaders (and husbands) do what's best for others
- women are equal in all ways and must be treated with dignity and justice,
- persons from other tribes/races/nationalities are made in God's image and loved by Him.
- Overcome evil with good: always resist evil, but never use violence
- Blessed are the peacemakers, they are God's children
- Nothing can separate us from the love of God

I'm convinced that it is impossible to build a just, flourishing, and peaceful society apart from these central themes of Jesus' teaching. (Of course, this also applies to America.) Thus, I'm grounding my teachings in Jesus' words in John 8 --- "Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
