"Trust in the Lord and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness." - Psalm 37:3

We reached ONE YEAR living here. We are in awe of all that Dad has done in our lives during this time. Our summer was pretty crazy and we dove right into all things fall.

We are entering another busy season for our family as the changing weather brings all things Fall... and then Christmas. Is it too soon to talk about Christmas?

We are finding a sweet rhythm of homeschool, teaching and life with our family. Continuing to learn what it means to "befriend faithfulness" in the everyday while expecting Dad to show up and move. A started meeting with a tutor to learn the local language and E has begun continuing self-study so that we can be more effective among our neighbors and do things like go to the market easily. :)

We will be hosting a Thanksgiving dinner for a large group of foreigners, as well as a Christmas open house where we'll be able to share the Christmas Story and the reason for gift giving. In January we will go for a family retreat which will be refreshing for our whole family. It will be an opportunity for our kids to connect to other MK's and process some of their experiences over the last year.

We are excited for what the rest of this year holds for our family, and are so thankful you're on this journey with us. As always, if you have any questions, please let us know!

Blessings,
E, A & family
